

Charles G. Argianas

President of Argianas & Associates

With over thirty years of experience working in the appraisal and consulting business throughout the United States, Charles Argianas is regarded by his peers and clients alike as an industry leader. The company he founded, Argianas & Associates has completed more than $10 billion (and counting) in real estate valuations for commercial, special purpose, and residential properties across the country.

Charles is the name you will hear time and time again as the one to call for the challenging projects, like the large institutional, industrial, and special purpose properties ranging from power plants to salt mines, from performing arts centers to movie complexes, from campgrounds to college campuses. Some of his most notable projects include iconic buildings such as; Water Tower Place Shopping Mall located on the famous Magnificent Mile in Chicago, the ABC Headquarters Tower which is home to the American Broadcasting Company in New York City, City National Plaza (formerly known as the ARCO Towers Plaza) known for being an Art-deco twin tower complex located in downtown Los Angeles, and the Wanamaker Building which was home to the first department store in Philadelphia.

With his Juris Doctor of Law from John Marshall Law School, Charles has provided expert testimony for a wide range of real estate valuation cases before federal and state courts throughout the country. He is a licensed, certified real estate appraiser in 12 states including; Arizona, California, Colorado, the District of Columbia, Georgia, Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Kansas, Kentucky, Michigan, Minnesota, Missouri, Nebraska, Nevada, New York, Ohio, Pennsylvania, Texas and Wisconsin. After he received his MAI designation in 1989, Charles joined Appraisal Institute in Chicago. He has worked to set industry standards as a Regional Panel Member of the Appraisal Institute Ethics and Counseling Panel. Charles has apprenticed the next generation of appraisers, teaching them not only the fundamentals of the appraisal business but also imparting to them his high standards and ethics.

Argianas
& Associates INC.